GENERAL INFORMATION

Oakland University was founded in 1957 as Michigan State University Oakland. Classes began in September 1959. In 1963, the institutional name was changed to Oakland University (affiliated with Michigan State University). Oakland University became an independent institution in 1970.

ACCREDITATION

Oakland University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (230 South LaSalle Street, Suite 7-500, Chicago, IL 60604 / (312) 263-0456). The Oakland University William Beaumont School of Medicine has been granted full accreditation by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME). In addition, many individual programs also are accredited by their respective professions.

UNIVERSITY CALENDAR

Through August 1961, the university operated on a quarter-hour calendar and moved to the semester calendar starting fall 1961. Eight-week spring and summer sessions were offered through 2007. In 2008, the spring and summer sessions were combined into one summer semester.

TRANSCRIPT LEVELS

Oakland University issues transcripts at the following levels:

Continuing Education – students pursuing non-credit certificates or taking individual courses recorded in continuing education units and not applicable to degree programs

Doctoral – students pursuing doctoral and education specialist degrees

ESL Center – students enrolled in the Center for English as a Second Language have courses recorded on a separate transcript from other continuing education programs but they are in continuing education units

Graduate – students pursuing master's degrees or graduate and post-master certificate programs

Medical – students pursuing the Doctor of Medicine degree

Post-Baccalaureate – students who hold a bachelor's degree and may be pursuing a second baccalaureate, teacher certification, prerequisites for graduate programs or personal development

Professional Development – post-bachelor or post-master students permitted to enroll in a graduate course but not pursuing any graduate credential

Undergraduate – non-matriculated students, dual-enrolled high school students and students pursuing their first bachelor's degree

UNIVERSITY GRADING SYSTEM

Adopted fall 2018, the GPA is computed on a four-point scale:

Grade	Honor Points
A	4.0
A-	3.7
B+	3.3
B	3.0
B-	2.7
C+	2.3
C	2.0
C-	1.7
D+	1.3
D	1.0
F	0.0

The following letter grades also are used:

I = Incomplete. Temporary grade and may be given only by student request and instructor consent and only after the cut-off date for use of the W grade. Student has up to one year to complete coursework. I grades after the one year deadline shall be changed to a grade of 0.0 for undergraduate students. May be assigned permanently at the graduate level (designated I) and in certain cases involving "P" grades (see page 2).

NP = No Progress. Does not carry credit toward graduation. Used for doctoral thesis and research courses when the student has not made progress during the specified enrollment period.

P = Progress. Valid for courses where it is anticipated that the work cannot be completed during the normal semester. "P" indicates satisfactory progress at term's end, pending a final mark for the course. Failure to complete coursework within two years results in assignment of 0.0 or "U" in the course to undergraduates and permanent "I" (designated I.) in course to graduate students.

R = Temporary mark assigned by the Registrar in the absence of a grade from instructor.

S = Satisfactory. Signifying at least 2.0 for undergraduate and at least 3.0 for graduate students, carries credit toward graduation.

SP = Satisfactory Progress. Used for doctoral thesis and research courses when the student has made appropriate progress during the specified enrollment period.

U = Unsatisfactory. Does not carry credit toward graduation.

W = Official Withdrawal.

Z = Audit. No credit given.

The Oakland University William Beaumont School of Medicine grading system (MD program only):

HN – Honors	PA – Pass	SP – Satisfactory Progress	FL – Fail
HP – High Pass	PR – Pass with Remediation	I – Incomplete	NP – No Progress
W – Withdrawn

The Oakland University William Beaumont School of Medicine does not calculate GPA or class rankings.

PAST GRADING SYSTEMS AND OTHER SYMBOLS USED

Through summer 2018, the undergraduate and graduate grading system was a 32-point system of numeric grades with passing grades ranging from 1.0 through 4.0, by tenths, and a no credit grade of 0.0. Where conversion of numeric to letter grades was necessary, the University recommended the following scale: 3.6 - 4.0 = A; 3.0 - 3.5 = B; 2.0 - 2.9 = C; 1.0 - 1.9 = D; 0.0 = F. Non-numeric grades were W, I, I., P, NP, SP, S, U, R and Z.

Prior to August 1963, letter grades were assigned as follows:
A = 4 (Excellent), B = 3 (Good), C = 2 (Average), D = 1 (Poor), F = 0 (Failure)

From August 1963 to May 1970 grades above 4.0 (4.1, 4.2, 4.3) were assigned to reward the highest academic achievement.

N = No grade. Signified withdrawal August 1963 to May 1970; assigned whenever credit not given May 1970 to August 1984; not recorded on transcripts between May 1970 and August 1976.

WN = Withdrawal with unsatisfactory performance in the course and WS = Withdrawal with satisfactory performance in the course. These grades were not recorded on undergraduate transcripts after September 1976.

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM

Starting fall 2017, courses numbered 1000 through 2999 indicate introductory undergraduate courses; advanced undergraduate courses are numbered 3000 through 4999. Courses numbered 5000 and above are primarily for graduate students. When a course number is followed by a P (for example: SPN 1140P), competency credit has been granted based on examination by that department.

Through summer 2017, courses numbered 100 through 299 indicated introductory undergraduate courses; advanced undergraduate courses were numbered 300 through 499. Courses numbered 500 and above were primarily for graduate students. When a course number was followed by a P (for example: SPN 114P), competency credit was granted based on examination by that department.

Prior to 1977, a series of University Courses (UC) were numbered to designate areas of study rather than level as follows: 010-019 (Western Literature), 030-039 (Western Institutions), 040-049 (Art and Music), 050-059 (Social Sciences), 060-070 (Non-Western Institutions, Area Studies), and 080-089 (Science and Mathematics for non-science majors).

English (ENG) 009, all Learning Skills (LS) (subsequently Rhetoric, RHT; currently Writing and Rhetoric, WRT) and Mathematics (MTH) courses numbered under 100 were or have been designed to enrich academic skills. Beginning September 1988, courses numbered under 050 concentrate on skill development and do not carry credit toward graduation.

Course numbers ending in N indicate that the course has been modified from its original content and that version does not meet the requirements of any degree program.

A course number suffix of C indicates that a course is offered for continuing education units. These courses are included only on continuing education transcripts.

Some graduate courses which have been identified as remedial begin with a leading zero (for example: 0500).

Courses numbered 9000 and above are for School of Medicine students.

REPEATED COURSES

An “E” marks grades which are excluded from the grade point average and an “I” shows the inclusion of the grade in the grade point average. Courses that may be repeated for additional credit will have an “I” next to each enrollment.

Repeated courses on microfilm records are noted with slash marks (///) over previous grades received.
